

MINISTRY INNOVATIONS

*“I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it?”
Isaiah 43:19*

What does Ministry Innovations Task Force do?

- helps cultivate new ideas and new ways of doing ministry in a congregation
- creates a community of faith in a space outside the church
- listens & tells parish stories
- provides seed money

MINISTRY INNOVATIONS HISTORY

In 2012, the Diocese conceived a new ministry enterprise. Parishes were asked to imagine new ways of doing ministry.

Grants were issued to:

Canterbury House, Macon

First Step, Columbus

Theology from the Margins, Atlanta

Freedom School, Macon

Capacitrons Ministries, Rio de Janeiro

Hannah Project, Atlanta

Various Ministries in Cuba

A NEW PERSPECTIVE OF INNOVATIVE MINISTRY

WE ARE

- working with the Office of Congregational Vitality to support parishes doing new ministries
- collaborating with groups or individuals who have new and innovative ideas for ministry
- creating opportunities for parishes/worshipping communities to expand their presence in their environs by funding innovative partnering projects

IMAGINE

If you, or your parish, are IMAGINING a new thing, let us imagine with you

Contact Ministry Innovations Task Force

Ginny Heckel, Convener – gheckel@wt.net

Members: Beth King, Harry Groce, Janet Tidwell, Winston Arthur